Watch Anytime to Prepare for Panel Discussion Saturday, June 11th	Screening Link: PROVIDED TO REGISTERED ATTENDEES ONE WEEK IN ADVANCE OF CONVENTION SYNOPSIS: For decades, child welfare authorities have been removing Native American children from their homes to “save them from being Indian.” In Maine, the first official Truth and Reconciliation Commission in the United States begins a historic investigation. Dawnland goes behind-the-scenes as this historic body grapples with difficult truths, redefines reconciliation, and charts a new course for state and tribal relations. Dawnland aired on Independent Lens on PBS in November 2018 and 2021, reaching more than two million viewers. The film won a national Emmy® Award for Outstanding Research in 2018 and made the American Library Association’s list of 2020 Notable Videos for Adults.
